PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This office space is part of a well-maintained condo community comprised of both office and retail users, located in the highly sought-after NW 63rd and May corridor. Surrounded by virtually every amenity, the property offers flexible leasing options, ideal for either a single tenant or two separate tenants. For buyers, the entire space is being sold as one unit. One side features an open layout with plumbing stubbed for a kitchenette and abundant natural light from north- and south-facing windows, with only flooring and light cosmetic updates needed to finish it out. The other side is fully built out with 10 offices, a breakroom, bathrooms, and the same bright window lines—requiring little more than new flooring and kitchen equipment to be move-in ready. NNNs include HOA dues, including water and taxes. Tenant is responsible for electric utilities.
